Comedians

John Roy

November 23 - November 25

John Roy has appeared on @Midnight, Conan, The Tonight Show, The Late Late Show, Last Comic Standing, and CBS' Star Search, where he was the first comedy champion. He is a regular performer on the most prestigious independent shows in comedy, including Meltdown, Hot Tub, Comedy at The Knitting Factory, Night Train, and Whiplash, as well as the best comedy clubs in North America, such as the Laugh Factory, The Hollywood Improv, and the Comedy Attic.

John has performed in the Just For Laughs Festival in Montreal, The Just For Laughs Festival in Chicago, the HBO Comedy Arts Festival in Aspen, the Limestone Festival in Bloomington, The High Plains Festival in Denver, and the Bridgetown Comedy Festival in Portland. His AST Records release "Alexander Hamilton" was named one of the Ten Best Comedy Releases of 2013 by the LA Weekly.

David Hemstad

November 30 - December 2

Called a "Canadian Master" by Just For Laughs, Dave Hemstad has skyrocketed to the top of the national comedy scene, appearing regularly across the country and on a hit show on CBC. Brashly confident on stage with clean, refreshing motivational humour, Hemstad muses on daily life, modern world frustrations and social tensions we all experience, but keep to ourselves. Dave Hemstad has a half hour special on CTV called Comedy Now! He is a regular on the CBC's The Debators, and has been a guest on Connect with Mark Kelly and The Strombo Show. Hemstad has over ten festival appearances- at the prestigious Just For Laughs festival in Montreal, at the Halifax Comedy Festival and the Winnipeg Comedy Festival. He has performed on CBC Radio's Madly Off in All Directions.

Lachlan Patterson

December 7 - December 9

Originally from Vancouver, British Columbia, Comedian Lachlan Patterson's relaxed manner makes for a unique performance highlighting the many mistakes he has made throughout his life. In his spare time Lachlan surfs the internet — cutting out things other people wrote about him and pasting them in his bio. "Patterson's performance was not only unique and entertaining, but from sitting in the audience, you could see the passion he had for his comedy." Now in his 7th year of performing stand-up comedy, Lachlan is starting to make a name for himself in the industry, and that name is Lachlan Patterson.

Pete Zedlacher

December 14 - December 16

Pete Zedlacher has quickly become one of the top headlining comics in the country as evidenced by his 2006 Canadian Comedy Award for Best Male Stand-up. Touring Canada from coast to coast Pete is a fan favourite within both the alternative and mainstream comedy club scene. He has appeared on his own one-hour episode of Comedy NOW! for CTV/The Comedy Network, which recently in repeats received the 2nd highest ratings in the show's history.

Pete is a two-time Gemini Award nominee for his recent television performances at Just For Laughs and CBC's The Halifax Comedy Festival.
